

Dear Mr. Pai,

Keep the net neutral under the current laws. You used to work for Verizon now you work for us, serve the American people. It's important that we have a level playing field for all people and access to the internet at the same speeds for every video, email and correspondence.

Keep the internet neutral under current laws.

Sincerely,
Zurit Horowitz